LEGISLATIVE JURISDICTION

Extract From Rule XXV of the Standing Rules of the Senate

STANDING COMMITTEES

1. The following standing committees shall be appointed at the commencement of each Congress, and shall continue and have the power to act until their successors are appointed, with leave to report by bill or otherwise on matters within their respective jurisdictions:

* * * * *

(p) Committee on Veterans' Affairs, to which committee shall be referred all proposed legislation, messages, petitions, memorials, and other matters relating to the following subjects:

1. Compensation of veterans.
2. Life insurance issued by the Government on account of service in the Armed Forces.
3. National cemeteries.
4. Pensions of all wars of the United States, general and special.
5. Readjustment of servicemen to civil life.
6. Soldiers' and sailors' civil relief.
7. Veterans' hospitals, medical care and treatment of veterans.
8. Veterans' measures generally.
9. Vocational rehabilitation and education of veterans.

* * * * *

RULES OF PROCEDURE OF THE COMMITTEE

I. Meetings—(a) Unless otherwise ordered, the committee shall meet on the first Wednesday of each month. The chairman may, upon proper notice, call such additional meetings as he deems necessary.

(b) Except as provided in subparagraphs (b) and (d) of paragraph 5 of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, meetings of the committee or a subcommittee shall be open to the public.

(c) The chairman of the committee or of a subcommittee, or the vice chairman in the absence of the chairman, or the ranking majority member present in the absence of the vice chairman, shall preside at all meetings.

(d) No meeting of the committee or any subcommittee shall be scheduled except by majority vote of the committee or by authorization of the chairman of the committee.

(e) The committee shall notify the office designated by the Committee on Rules and Administration of the time, place, and purpose of each meeting. In the event such meeting is canceled, the committee shall immediately notify such designated office.

II. Quorums—(a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b), seven members of the committee and four members of a subcommittee shall constitute a quorum for the reporting or approving of any measure or matter or recommendation. Four members of the committee or a subcommittee shall constitute a quorum for purposes of transacting any other business.

(b) In order to transact any business at a committee or subcommittee meeting, at least one member of the minority shall be present. If, at any meeting, business cannot be transacted because of the absence of such a member, the matter shall lay over for a calendar day. If the presence of a minority member is not then obtained, business may be transacted by the appropriate quorum.

(c) One member shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of receiving testimony.

III. Voting—(a) Votes may be cast by proxy. A proxy may be written or oral, and may be conditioned by personal instructions. A proxy shall be valid only for the day given except that a written proxy may be valid for the period specified therein.

(b) There shall be a complete record kept of all committee action. Such record shall contain the vote cast by each member of the committee on any question on which a "yea" and "nay" vote is requested.

IV. Subcommittees—(a) No member of the committee may serve on more than two subcommittees. No member of the committee shall receive assignment to a second subcommittee until all members of the committee, in order of seniority, have chosen assignments to one subcommittee.

(b) The committee chairman and the ranking minority member shall be ex officio nonvoting members of each subcommittee of the committee.

(c) Subcommittees shall be considered de novo whenever there is a change in committee chairmanship and, in such event, subcommittee seniority shall not necessarily apply.

(d) Should a subcommittee fail to report back to the committee on any measure within a reasonable time, the chairman may withdraw the measure from such subcommittee and so notify the committee for its disposition.

V. Hearings and Hearing Procedures—(a) Except as specifically otherwise provided, the rules governing meetings shall govern hearings.

(b) At least 1 week in advance of the date of any hearing, the committee or a subcommittee shall undertake, consistent with the provisions of paragraph 4 of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, to make public announcement of the date, place, time, and subject matter of such hearing.

(c) The committee or a subcommittee shall require each witness who is scheduled to testify at any hearing to file 40 copies of such witness' testimony with the committee not later than 48 hours prior to the witness' scheduled appearance unless the chairman and ranking minority member determine there is good cause for failure to do so.

(d) The presiding officer at any hearing is authorized to limit the time allotted to each witness appearing before the committee or subcommittee.

VI. GENERAL—All applicable requirements of the Standing Rules of the Senate shall govern the committee and its subcommittees.

VII. PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATIONS—Each Presidential nominee whose nomination is subject to Senate confirmation and referred to this committee shall submit a statement of his or her background and financial interests, including the financial interests of his or her spouse and of children living in the nominee's household, on a form approved by the committee which shall be sworn to as to its completeness and accuracy. The committee form shall be in two parts—

> (A) information concerning employment, education, and background of the nominee which generally relates to the position to which the individual is nominated, and which is to be made public; and
> (B) information concerning financial and other background of the nominee, to be made public when the committee determines that such information bears directly on the nominee's qualifications to hold the position to which the individual is nominated.

Committee action on a nomination, including hearings or a meeting to consider a motion to recommend confirmation, shall not be initiated until at least five days after the nominee submits the form required by this rule unless the chairman, with the concurrence of the ranking minority member, waives this waiting period.

VIII. NAMING OF VETERANS' ADMINISTRATION FACILITIES—It is the policy of the committee that no Veterans' Administration facility shall be named after any individual unless—

> (A) such individual is deceased and was—
> (1) a veteran who was instrumental in the construction or the operation of the facility to be named,
> (2) a member of the United States House of Representatives or Senate who had a direct association with such facility, or
> (3) an Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, or a Secretary of Defense or of a service branch, or a military or other Federal civilian official of comparable or higher rank;
> (B) each member of the Congressional delegation representing the State in which the designated facility is located has indicated in writing such member's support of the proposal to name such facility after such individual; and
> (C) the pertinent State department or chapter of each Congressionally chartered veterans' organization having a national membership of at least 500,000 has indicated in writing its support of such proposal.

IX. AMENDMENTS TO THE RULES—The rules of the committee may be changed, modified, amended, or suspended at any time, provided, however, that not less than a majority of the entire membership so determine at a regular meeting with due notice, or at a meeting specifically called for that purpose. The rules governing quorums for reporting legislative matters shall govern rules changes, modifications, amendments, or suspension.
